Spring 2020

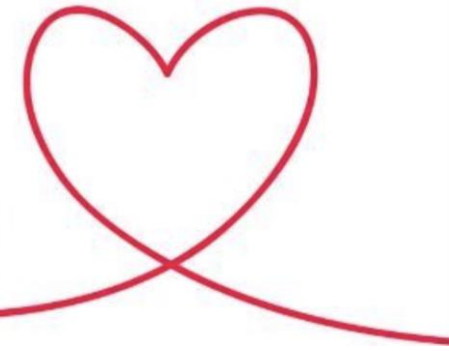

How is the City of Morro Bay responding to COVID-19?

Morro Bay Cares!

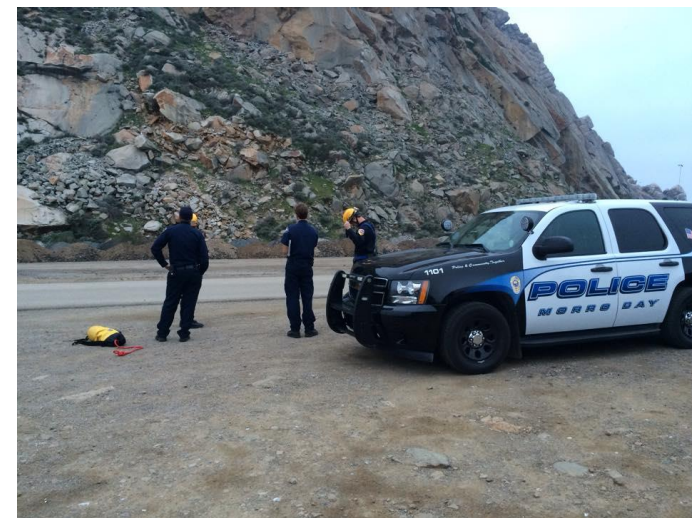

- The City launched the Morro Bay Cares Program with COVID-19 information, updates and resources online at:
www.MorroBayCA.gov
- R U OK? Program is available for the City's most vulnerable residents to sign-up to receive regular wellness checks and help if needed.
- You can also sign-up to volunteer with Voluntary Organizations Active in Disasters (VOAD)
- Resources are available for local businesses at:
www.morrochamber.org/covid-19-resources

Are we prepared for what's ahead?

- The health and well-being of our residents is our utmost concern.
- Rest assured the City is taking all necessary action to maintain providing essential City services and provide resources to our most vulnerable residents.
- The City must ensure that we are prepared for any medical or catastrophic emergency including preparing our local Police and Fire Departments by preventing service reductions, updating emergency communication systems and maintaining rapid 911 emergency response times.

Does Morro Bay have enough first responders?

- The pandemic only shows the need to be prepared for any health crisis
- Nearly 70% of calls to the Morro Bay Fire Department are related to emergency rescue and medical emergencies.
- The City must continue to prevent significant reductions to service of our local Morro Bay Fire Department, so our skilled, local firefighter-paramedics continue to respond to our local life-threatening emergencies.

Community Priorities

- Residents recently identified the following community priorities:
 - Preparing for a medical or catastrophic emergency
 - Maintaining 24/7 911 emergency response
 - Maintaining 24/7 paramedic services
 - Maintaining 24/7 police services
 - Maintaining fire protection services
 - Keeping public areas healthy, safe and clean
 - Protecting the financial stability of the City, its residents and local businesses
 - Supporting local small businesses through the recovery
